CHARITY OF THE MONTH - VIA BEATA (A Way of Blessing)

Launched in 2009 it is a trail of Christian artworks crossing the widest part of England from east to west, marked by shelters and carvings to inspire and meditate on. These "way-stations" are planned to be linked by footpaths, roads and bridleways from Lowestoft to St David's in Wales and about half are already complete. It's an exciting project. See the display in the Welcome Area.

'across the ages – a time for all'

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

*God of all compassion, have mercy upon the millions who have never heard of the saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, or who, having heard, have failed to respond to the Gospel.
Turn the tide of evil in our land and in lands across the world, that unbelief and ignorance of your word and will may be transformed,
and that men and women, loving you above all else,
may learn to love each other. Amen.*

DURING THE WEEK

SUNDAY Let us pray for those who are unwell and for the recently bereaved.

MONDAY Praise God that rescuers have reached the thirteen boys and their football coach stranded in flooded caves in Thailand for ten days without food, and that they are alive and coping with their perilous situation. Pray for rescue services to have wisdom to know how to bring them to the surface safely.

TUESDAY Applications from children to attend the Holiday Club are coming in very slowly. Pray that more families will respond, especially following Andrea's visit to Eaton Primary Academy this week.

WEDNESDAY Police are investigating another series of unexplained deaths at a hospital, this time at The Countess of Chester Hospital and have arrested a nurse on suspicion of murder. It will be a harrowing time for staff, the police and the families involved - let us pray for wisdom, patience and comfort for all concerned.

THURSDAY Interviews are taking place this morning for the post of part-time administrator in the Parishes Office. Pray that the candidates will give of their best at interview and those conducting the interviews will have wisdom and unity so that the person of God's choosing will be appointed.

FRIDAY Locally we pray for those living in Sumpter Road, Sunningdale and Tamarind Mews, especially for the elderly and housebound.
Remember those coping with long term illness.

SATURDAY We take our water supply for granted, but at the time of writing this the hot sunshine continues and there has been no rain. Let us pray for farmers, agricultural workers and others having to cope with feeding and watering livestock and crops.
